Janet

How about 1 pm Central on May 22nd? If that works, let us know what number to call.

Thanks

Bryce

Bryce,

Rob and I are both available on Wednesday May 22nd anytime between 9:30am and 4pm.

Thanks for giving us a head start on setting something aside.

Janet

I will need to wait and check with Scott on his availability when he returns, but I am in meetings most of the week of May 13. If you have dates and times that work between May 20 - 22, let us know. We can confirm when Scott returns.

Thanks

Bryce

Scott, Bryce,

I am following up my voice mail message to Scott this morning, with this email, since Scott is out of the office until May 10th.

I would like to set up an informal technical conference call with you both, to help understand the Peabody Bear Run data submittal.

Scott and I spoke awhile back, I conveyed that EPA was delayed in its analysis of the Bear Run data submittal and we had a couple of follow up questions regarding the data submittal, including location of biological sampling sites and the coding for the location of sites for the chemistry data reports.

I am ccing NPDES Water Quality expert, Rob Pepin, since he is conducting the review and will also be on the call.

We appreciate your time to assist us on our analysis of your submittal.

Let me know what days and timeframes would work for you both once Scott returns on May 10th

Thanks much,

Janet
